Resume

Trey Grandemange

I want to translate motions & Feelings through my work. It's like a search for connection. In expressing what I have inside me, as an individual, I believe I am, too, speaking about the collective. About what pervades all of us. What sets us apart is also what unites us.

I am a creative hardworking professional, who takes the utmost pride in their work. I am devoted to creating visual pieces of work to motivate and inspire.

A creative and dedicated graphic designer with four years of experience in a variety of projects. A level-headed and clear approach to the clients needs has lead to an understanding of the value of a business relationship.

EDUCATION

2009 - 2012 I spent my High School Years at Glenwood High School.

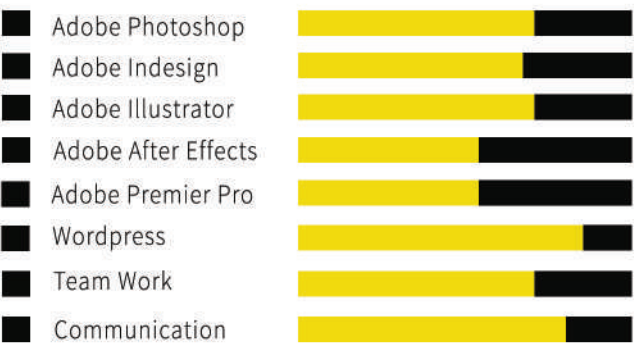

2013 - 2015 I attained my Diploma in Multi Media at the Centre of Fine Art, Animation, and Design (CFAD)

JOB OBJECTIVE

I often get asked the question what I would bring to the collective group?

I like to think it is my ability to adapt, to be able to think on my feet, and translate an idea into something visual pleasing and on the mark.

PROFESIONAL SKILL

WORK EXPERIENCES

2016 I worked and a company called Media Sea. We were brought in to be trained as 3D Animators for an up and coming childrens TV show. My role was to produce the script, then head up the team to produce our pilot.

Since 2017, I have worked at Azalea Promotions as the lead Digital Designer, working on tourism publications to promote tourism in and Around KwaZulu - Natal. I was to manage all digital aspects of what the company offered, as well as produce print publications when needed.
